

KEY FACTS

- ✦ The third release from the 1999 Collector's Whiskey Series, released in 5 bottlings
- ✦ Uniquely distilled from bottle-ready Pilsner, a first in the whiskey industry
- ✦ Double distilled in Charbay's Copper Alambic Charentais Pot-Still by Master Distillers Miles & Marko Karakasevic
- ✦ A combined aging of 14 years (6 years oak & 8 years stainless steel), bottled at 132.4 proof, full barrel strength, only 10 barrels or 224 cases
- ✦ Made from 100% 2-row barley, grown and malted in British Columbia, selected for its more concentrated flavor profile than the mainstream 6-row barley

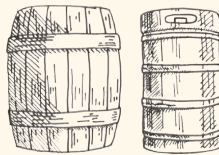

HANDCRAFTED PROCESS

Beer
Bottle-ready Pilsner

Double Distillation
Charentais Pot-Still

Double Aging
New American White Oak
6 yrs + Stainless Steel 8 yrs

Bottling

REVIEWS

- ✦ 95 Pts Top 50 Spirits of the Year - Wine Enthusiast
- ✦ 5 Stars Highest Recommendation. "A complete oak-aged spirit that's majestic and unique."
- Spirit Journal
- ✦ "...a knockout the likes of which you aren't going to encounter anywhere else."
- Christopher Null, Drinkhacker.com

66.2% ABV | $425
 750mL / 12 Pack | CA Sug

PROFILE

- Nose Full of vanilla, caramel and chocolate notes
- Palate Maple syrup, vanilla, rich caramel, cinnamon, leather, dried stone-fruit and hints of marzipan
- Finish Rich, lingering, sweet-hot finish

DISTILLERS' NOTES

"When my father and I distilled this whiskey in '99, we released it in waves, so whiskey fans can experience the evolving flavors, as if they were at the Distillery. Aging it for 14 years added a roundness, as the hops settled into the mid-palate and the richness from the barrels carries the bold main body."
 - Master Distiller Marko Karakasevic